Annapolis County Parks, Trails & Open Spaces

This popular brochure includes a map and 40 outdoor adventures. Whether you walk, jog, hike, cycle, paddle, bird watch, garden, fish, cross country ski or enjoy traveling by car, the diverse landscape with its picturesque parks, scenic vistas, trails and beautiful sunsets will inspire you.

Delap's Cove Wilderness Trail

Stroll through the lush forest and emerge for a breath of salt air on the rugged, windswept coastline of the Bay of Fundy. This is a nature lover and photographer's paradise. Interpretation sites and picnic areas offer wonderful opportunities for special educational and pleasurable wilderness adventures. Located only approx. 24 km (15 miles) northwest of Annapolis, Delaps Cove has two scenic wilderness trails, Bohaker and Charlie's, each with its own unique ecosystem. The abandoned Old Shore Rd. links them. Bohaker Trail has a magnificent waterfall.

Raven Haven Beachside Family Park

Raven Haven, open June 8 to Sept. 5, is a 4-acre family-oriented park on the scenic shores of nearby Sandy Bottom Lake, owned by the Municipality of Annapolis County, managed by Recreation Services. Reservations are recommended for the campsites, cabins and hostel. Qualified lifeguards will supervise swimmers daily from 11 a.m. until 7 p.m. Enjoy the playground, join in a game of beach volleyball or ring toss, and visit the canteen for tasty treats. 532-7320. ## Paint the Town - August 20 - 21

Paint the Town® is the anchor fund raising event for the Annapolis Region Community Arts Council (ARCAC) and its artist-run gallery, ARTsPLACE. The 16th annual event is on tap for Aug. 20 - 21 and will feature up to 75 artists and crafts people creating works of art inspired by this beautiful, historic town.

Rain or shine, artists set up easels at various scenic locations throughout Annapolis Royal and work in whatever medium suits them best and the outdoor format.

Paint the Town® is great fun for artists, craftspeople, buyers and browsers alike! A portion of each afternoons' Auction at the Legion benefits ARCAC. For details contact 532-7069 or visit www.arcac.ca

The first Paint the Town® took place in August 1996, with 25 artists coming to paint on site around the historic town of Annapolis Royal. Today it has grown into the anchor fund raising event for the colourful Annapolis Region Community Arts Council. (Fry)
