SUGGESTED SCENIC DRIVES, TOURS & ACTIVITIES

Historic & Scenic Circle Tour including the Bay of Fundy and Bridgetown

From Annapolis Royal go through Granville Ferry to visit North Hills Museum (3) Melanson Settlement National Historic Site (38) Port-Royal National Historic Site (2) and Victoria Beach (41). Come back towards Port-Royal then cross the North Mountain to Delaps Cove Wilderness Trail (1) and the Bay of Fundy shore. Explore Parker's Cove, Young's Cove and the beach at Hampton, then continue South to Bridgetown, and return to Annapolis Royal via Highway 1 if you want to stop at Action Jax Family Fun Park (39), or come back on the 201 if you plan to visit the Tupperville School Museum (42). See tour, page 19, for additional details.

Highway 1 to Upper Clements, Digby & Whale Watching Adventures

The Annapolis Royal Golf Course (23) is located on Highway 1, only minutes from the Annapolis Royal stoplight en route to Digby. You'll also soon arrive at Upper Clements Park (24), then Old St. Edward's Loyalist Church (25) and the Cornwallis Military Museum (26). Whale Watching expeditions (43) from Brier Island or Tiverton on Digby neck are located approximately only one hour from Annapolis Royal. (If you're going whale watching be sure to allow plenty of time since ferry schedules may be involved.) Refer to page 6 for whale watching info, page 20 for Upper Clements Park & pages 8 and 13 for other area attractions.

Route 8 to Kejimikujik National Park & National Historic Site

Take Route 8 towards Kejimikujik National Park. The Grist Mill, (22) on the Dugway Road in Lequille, is located only about 5 minutes from the Annapolis Royal stoplight. Continue on Route 8 towards Kejimikujik (28), only 45 minutes from Annapolis Royal, for camping, canoeing, hiking and cross-country skiing. Be sure to also stop and enjoy Mickey Hill Pocket Wilderness (27) and Raven Haven Beachside Family Park (44). For more information on these attractions see pages 13 and 15.

Artists' Studios Tour See page 14 for details on this creative and colourful tour.

Celebrate Magnolias

Magnolia soulangeana Rustica Rubra, one of the many types. (Waldow)

Annapolis Royal's 4th annual Magnolia Celebration will be full of beautiful fragrant magnolia blossoms which bloom from the end of April throughout May and into June. The "Inspired by Magnolias" art show runs May 1 - May 29 at ARCAC.

The Historic Gardens, with its exquisite magnolia collection, will be open May 7 and 8. Also on May 7, three gardens will be open for special touring, 10 am - 1 pm, and Blooming writer, Jodi Delong, will be at Allison Smyth's pretty garden in Granville Ferry with her new book, "Plants for Atlantic Gardens", to discuss gardening questions. For unusual plants, don't miss the 2nd annual Rare and Unusual Plant Sale

2 - 5 pm at market square. On May 8, enjoy a magnolia talk at the Historic Gardens from 2 - 3:30 pm, followed by a magnolia walk. A self-guided magnolia tour is also available. 532-7018, www.historicgardens.com or call the Town Hall for info, 532-2043, www.annapolisroyal.com
