

ANNAPOLIS ROYAL AREA

Historic - Scenic - Fun

(Parks Canada/C. Reardon)

Catch a glimpse of 17th century French colonial life at Port-Royal National Historic Site.

(NS Tourism)

Relive the past with a guided tour of Canada's largest National Historic District.

(Fry)

Enjoy nature up close.

(Fry)

Discover unique waterfront shopping, a scenic boardwalk, and the Farmers' Market.

(Parks Canada/C. Reardon)

Explore picturesque Fort Anne, the oldest National Historic Site in Canada.

Welcome to Timeless Annapolis Royal

Visit Annapolis Royal, Nova Scotia and explore 400 years of history.

AS ONE OF THE OLDEST European settlements in Canada, Annapolis Royal is one of only fifteen National Historic Districts in the country. In 1605 the area was settled by a small group of French explorers led by Samuel de Champlain and Sieur de Mons. The French named the new land Port Royal and built the Habitation as a centre for their operations in Acadie.

In Annapolis Royal you will enjoy a delightful blend of culture and stunning scenery as you stroll through 400 years of history. Outdoor activities are abundant, including hiking trails, biking, golf, canoeing, fishing and bird watching. Visit historic sites and gardens, take a candlelight graveyard tour, wander through artists' studios and spend a Saturday morning at the Farmers' and Traders' Market.

Unique shopping, live theatre, gourmet meals and historic inns and B&B's make the Annapolis Royal area the perfect weekend and vacation destination.

Phone 902-532-2043 for your free travel kit or check out the website at www.annapolisroyal.com