

The Historical Association of Annapolis Royal sells two artistic Bird's Eye View Maps that are suitable for framing: Annapolis Royal & Granville Ferry (1878) by T. M. Fowler and Annapolis Royal & Lequille (2005) by Jim Todd of Todd Graphic. These beautiful maps are available at Bainton's Tannery Outlet, the O'Dell House Museum and other select locations. (Maps on pages 11, 13 & 14 are rotated 90 degrees clockwise.) www.TourAnnapolisRoyal.com For other maps of heritage properties, churches, wharves, cemeteries, recreation and more visit www.mapannapolis.ca This web-based asset map site, created and maintained by diverse volunteer community-interest groups, always welcomes new volunteers!

Welcome to Annapolis Royal

Visit Annapolis Royal, Nova Scotia and explore 400 years of history.

As one of the oldest European settlements in Canada, Annapolis Royal is one of only a few National Historic Districts in the country. Situated on ancestral lands of the Mi'kmaq, the area was settled in 1605 by a small group of French explorers led by Samuel de Champlain and Sieur de Mons. The French named the new land Port-Royal and built the Habitation as centre for their operations in Acadie.

Outdoor activities are abundant, including hiking trails, biking, golf, canoeing, fishing and bird watching. Visit historic sites and gardens, take a candlelight graveyard tour, wander through artists' studios and spend a Saturday morning at the Farmers and Traders Market.

In Annapolis Royal you will enjoy a delightful blend of culture and stunning scenery as you stroll through 400 years of history.

Unique shopping, live theatre, gourmet meals and historic inns and B&B's make the Annapolis Royal area the perfect weekend and vacation destination.

The Cradle of Our Nation

Phone 902-532-2043 for your free travel kit or check out the website at www.annapolisroyal.com