Seventeen Acres of Paradise

Enjoy The Historic Gardens

Imagine exploring a beautiful garden where the winds of history blow softly through the trees. Imagine being entranced by the beauty of an internationally renowned landscape. Imagine spending the day in seventeen acres of paradise.

Nestled in a serene setting overlooking a tidal river valley, the Annapolis Royal Historic Gardens is among Nova Scotia's premiere attractions. The Gardens astonishes and delights visitors of all ages with themed gardens, colourful collections and unique displays. This is a showcase of gardening methods, designs and materials representing more than four hundred years of local history. The Rose Collection is a feast for the senses with 270 rose cultivars and thousands of fragrant blossoms. Other favourites include the stunning Victorian Garden, a hillside Rock Garden, a colourful Perennial Border and an 18th century Governor's Garden. The modern Innovative Garden is popular with visitors interested in how to design a compact and sustainable vegetable garden.

Of special interest is the Acadian section of the Gardens. This section features the only archaeologically authenticated replica of a pre-deportation Acadian dwelling in the Maritime region, complete with a thatched roof. The adjacent potager is based on Acadian diary notes, the orchard and willow hedge are 17th century cultivars, and the dykewalk surrounds land first cultivated by Acadians centuries ago. This garden is based on a 1671 time period when Port-Royal (later Annapolis Royal) was the capital of Acadie. A nearby sign lists the family names from the 1671 census.

Throughout the Gardens you will find sculptures by some of Nova Scotia's most renowned artists. The Gardens Shop features Maritime handcrafts and gardening gifts. Pause a moment to enjoy coffee or lemonade under the shade of the 350 year old weeping Elm at the Elm Tree Café. The Historic Gardens offer a variety of events and activities to enhance your experience and provide you with some special memories. Through the winter months, be sure to visit the Winter Farmers Market every Saturday from 9am until noon.

This incredible garden has garnered both national and international recognition including being named "Canada's 2015 Garden of the Year". The Historic Gardens is owned and operated by a non-profit charitable organization. Tickets are good for the entire day with revenues supporting future maintenance and development. Senior, family and group rates are available. For more information visit www.historicgardens.com or call 902-532-7018.
