MÉTIS CULTURE DAY August 20 (1 - 4 p.m.)

Over 400 years ago, the Mi'kmaq and the French met at Port-Royal. They shared knowledge and formed an alliance. Members of the Association des Acadiens-Métis-Souriquois continue to practice many of the traditions they learned from the Mi'kmaq. Through singing, drumming and prayer, by taking part in a smudging ceremony and with demonstrations and displays, you will experience their rich culture. 902-532-2898

FORT-TO-FORT August 26

The County of Annapolis, the Town of Annapolis Royal and Parks Canada are partnering to invite you to walk, run or bike Fort-to-Fort. The fun will start at Fort Anne National Historic Site and travel to Port-Royal National Historic Site of Canada (The Habitation) all in celebration of Canada's 150th. For more info visit

FESTIVAL OF DANCE ANnapolis ROYAL August 15 - 19

Festival of Dance Annapolis Royal (FODAR) is Atlantic Canada's only summer contemporary dance festival. Curated to mark Canada's 150th, highlights include "Sara Does a Solo", a funny one-woman dance account of aging by Sarah Porter. "World Premiere" by Maria Osende and Megan Matheson Hamilton fuses contemporary and flamenco. "Native American Hoop Dance" will be performed by Barbara Diabo, originally from the Mohawk First Nation of Kahnawake. "Sacred Garden" (1986) is a hauntingly beautiful duet created by David Earle. "Boys Will Be Men" (1985) is a poignant duet of relationships, gender and power by Michael Caldwell and Louis Laberge Côté. "Lighted Rooms" features Annapolis Royal's talented, critically acclaimed Company of Angels with a blend of dance, personal stories, music and poetry. Dance on Film is new this
