

Annapolis Royal ~ Fun for all Ages

Fundy Rose

self-appointed policewoman along the waterfront.

The Historical Association of Annapolis Royal has nominated Rose for recognition by the Historic Sites and Monuments Board of Canada, and she is the subject of the play Fortune by New York playwright George Cameron Grant. You can learn more about the inspirational Rose Fortune when visiting Annapolis Royal by taking one of Alan Melanson's Candlelight Graveyard Tours at Fort Anne National Historic Site.

Bay Ferries' MV Fundy Rose is named after the world-famous Bay of Fundy which she crosses daily from St. John, NB to Digby, NS and in honour of Rose Fortune – a Loyalist who came to Annapolis Royal after the War of American Independence and transported goods with a wheelbarrow while serving as

There are three ways to reach Nova Scotia by boat: The Cat with service from Portland, Maine to Yarmouth, NS; the Holiday Isle from Wood Islands, PEI to Caribou, NS; and the Fundy Rose from St. John, NB to Digby, NS.
